COUNTRY NEWS.

Norwich, July 29.

LAST Wednesday was held at the Maid's-Head the Annual Feast of the Gentlemen Florists in this City, where was a very glorious shew of July Flowers, and a grand Entertainment for the Society: And the 4 Stewards chosen for the ensuing Year were,

Mr. Jeremiah Barton,
Mr. James Holland,
Mr. Thomas Lucas,
Mr. — Hutchinson.

July 29. Whereas upon Complaint made Right Worshipful Nathaniel Day, Esq; Mayor of the City, that several Quantities of adulterated Snuff was brought to this Fair, Officers were immediately dispatched to detect the Venders thereof, accordingly seized several Parcels, mix'd with a pound of Fustick, Yellow Oaker, Sand, and pernicious Ingredients, with the Implements of making and manufacturing the same; but as some of these Persons have fled from Justice, others following this unlawful Practice will be prosecuted, example worthy to be followed by all the Magistrates of this Kingdom) and that no Person may after plead Ignorance, the following recited Part of an Act of Parliament made for that Purpose, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, at any time after the said twentieth Day of June, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred Sixteen, make, mix, or colour, or cause to be made, mixed, or coloured, any Sort of Snuff with any Sort of Oakers, Umber, or any other kind of colouring, except with Water tinged with the Colour, commonly called Venetian Red only; or shall cause to be mixed with any Sort of Snuff, Fustick, or yellow Ebony, Touchwood, or other Sort of Wood, or any Dirt, or Sand, or Fustick from Tobacco; or shall knowingly sell, expose to Sale, any Snuff so made, mixed, or coloured, aforesaid, every such Person so offending, shall, for every Pound-weight of Snuff, so made, mixed, or coloured, forfeit the said Snuff, and likewise the Sum of Three Pounds; and proportionably for any greater or lesser Quantity, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaintiff, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland, wherein no Escheat, Privilege, Protection, or Vager of Law shall be allowed, nor any more for our Impariment; one Moiety of which Forfeiture shall be to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to the Use of any Person or Persons who shall seize, inform, or give information for the same. 5 Geo. 1. C. 11. Sect 22. This further enforced by another Clause, 1 Geo. 1.

L O N D O N.

The King of Prussia, together with the Prince Royal, Prince Augustus William, the Prince of Anhalt Dessau, the Prince of Holstein, and other General Officers and Noblemen in his Retinue, arrived last Thursday sc'nnight in the Evening at Middagten in Guelderland, a Seat belonging to the Major General Baron de Ginkel, the Dutch Envoy Extraordinary to his Prussian Majesty, who went as far as Doesburg to meet his Majesty and his Retinue, who came in 5 Coaches, each drawn by 6 Horses.

His Majesty lay at Middagten, but did not Sup, so that none but his Attendants partook of what was prepared for his Supper. The Prince of Orange hearing of his Arrival at Middagten, went thither next Day from Loo, and his Prussian Majesty, who seem'd over-joy'd to see him, gave his most Serene Highness great Tokens of his Friendship. The Prince dined with the King, and afterwards accompanied his Majesty to Roolendal, where he stay'd two Hours, to see that fine House and Gardens. In the Evening the King returned to Middagten, as did also the Prince of Orange to Loo, to give the necessary Orders for the King's Reception, who had pro-posed to be there next Day, which was Saturday. Accordingly at 6 o'Clock that Morning, his Prussian Majesty, with all his Retinue, and accompany'd in particular by the Baron de Ginkel, set out from Middagten, pass'd to Zutphen, and stopp'd at Voorst, to see that fine House which was the late Earl of Albemarle's, but arrived soon after at Loo, where the Court of the Prince of Orange was in the highest Splendor to receive him. His Prussian Majesty, the Prince Royal, and Prince William, dined with the Prince and Princess, and intended to return the same Night to Middagten, and on the Monday following to set out for Arnhem, where he was to be received by the Garrison under Arms, and to be saluted by the Discharges of the Cannon. 'Twas thought that he would return about the End of last Week to Cleves. Those who have seen his Prussian Majesty since his Arrival in Guelderland say, he has not enjoy'd so good a State of Health for a long time, as he does at this present.

The Regiment of Foot late Montague's, was expected at Preston Pans last Tuesday, in their Way to the North, but was to wait in the Neighbourhood of Edinburgh till reviewed, with those of Whetham and Middleton.

On Saturday sc'nnight John Putland, Esq; was married at Dublin to Miss Moore, Sister to Sir Charles Moore, Bart. with whom he has a very large Fortune.

Last Saturday sc'nnight, about 12 o'Clock at Night, as one Morris and his Wife were walking together in Dame-street, Dublin, a Soldier attempted to force his Wife from him; but he resisting, the Soldier stabb'd him in the Belly with his Bayonet; but 'tis said, he is like to recover. The Soldier was committed to Newgate.

The same Night one Keys was taken at the King's Head on the Merchants Quay at Dublin, for robbing a Gentleman in the County of Kilkenny about six Weeks ago: There was another of his Comrades with him, who made his Escape. He had about him when taken, 2 Cases of Pistoles, and a Blunderbuss with 13 Slugs in it, conceal'd in a Belt behind his Back. And on Sunday he was carried out of Dublin under a strong Guard to Kilkenny, where 'tis said 4 more of his Accomplices are confined.

Tuesday last between 2 and 3 in the Afternoon, fell a most dreadful Storm of Hail between Stow Market and Stradbroke in Suffolk. At Wingfield near Stradbroke, and at Stow, the Hailstones measur'd 6 Inches about, and besides the great Damage done to the Corn, many Geese were killed by them. This Storm was attended by a violent Wind, it being so high at Kettleburgh, as to blow down 40 Haycocks in one Meadow, but the Hail did not reach so far.

We hear of great Damage done about Colchester the same Day, by the Thunder, Lightening and Hail, and that some of the Hailstones measured an incredible Bigness.

Last Week a Fire broke out at the House of a School-mistress at East Thorpe, 6 Miles from Colchester, which burnt 3 Hours before it could be extinguished, and consumed the said House and two others.

His Grace the Duke of Marlborough is appointed Lord Lieutenant of the County of Buckingham and Oxford.

Yesterday Morning died suddenly at his Barber's, in Peter's Alley, whither he went to be shaved, Mr. James Bartlet, late an eminent Druggist, at the Corner of Cornhill in Bishopsgate Street, and one of the Common Council for that Ward. We hear he has by his Will left 1000 l. to the Incurables of Bethlehem Hospital, and 1000 l. to St. Bartholomew's Hospital, of which Hospitals he was a Governor, and the Residue of his Estate, which is said to be above 10,000 l. to his next of Kin; but he had none but very distant Relations.

Yesterday Morning died at his House in the Poultry, Mr. Ford, a Bookseller, after 3 or 4 Days Illness.

The same Day the Justices of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Westminster, met at Westminster Hall pursuant to their last Adjournment, and the new Commission for the said City and Liberty lately passed, was read by the Clerk, whereby it appeared, that many of the Gentlemen that were in the former Commission are left out, and divers others added.

At the said Sessions Hill Massendine, Esq; took the Oaths to qualify himself as one of the Commissioners of the Alienation Office.

Several Persons who stood bound over, appeared on their Recognizances, several of whom were discharged, and others continued.

After which the Court adjourned to the 24th Instant.

Yesterday Morning the Lady of the Right Hon. the Lord Belew, was safely delivered of a Daughter at his House in Conduit Street, Hanover Square.

The same Morning died at his House in Union-street, Westminster, Mr. Alford, an eminent and wealthy Oylman.

Yesterday a Soldier was committed to Newgate by Nathaniel Blackerby, Esq; for ravishing a Girl of about 11 Years of Age.

The same Day a Pawnbroker in the Broad Way, Westminster, who goes by the Name of Colonel Baby, was committed by the Justices to Tothill-fields Bridewell, for retailing Spirituous Liquors contrary to Law.

The same Day a Woman who was brought before the said Justices for the like Offence, at the Ordnance Coffee-House in Old Palace Yard, Westminster, where the Justices meet, found means to escape, which put the Constable and those that informed against her in a great Surprise; diligent Search was made after her, but to no Purpose.

Yesterday in the Afternoon Mr. Dogget's Coat and Badge was rowed for, from the Old Swan at Chelsea, by six Watermen who came out of their Apprenticeships this Year; and the same was won by one Oaks, who Ply's at King's Arms Stairs.

The Advertisements which are almost daily published, giving Notice of the Sales of Houses, Plate, Jewells, &c. by way of Raffle by the new-invented Machine, makes it very observable how strong the Disposition of People is to trespass on the Acts of Parliament made to prevent private Lotteries, properly called Bubble Lotteries, which were experienced to be extremely prejudicial to the fair Trader, and a violent Temptation to the inferior Class of People: As these daily increase, and are attended with such bad Consequences, 'tis to be hoped that every honest Trader will assist to discountenance those Iniquitous Practices, by giving notice of all such Persons that are concerned therein: The Penalties prescribed by the Acts are 500 l. on the Person carrying on such an Undertaking, and likewise to be prosecuted as common Rogues, and 20 l. on every Person adventuring in such Sale of Houses, Plate, Jewells, &c. which are to be determined by Tickets, Dice, Lots, Cards, Balls, or any other Numbers or Figures, or any other way whatsoever. Vide the 1st Stat. 10 & 11 of W. 3. cap 17. and by an Act of Geo. 1. 8 Stat. cap. 2. the Offenders are to be committed to Gaol for one whole Year without Bail or Mainprize.

N. B. If the Receivers would be honest enough to return the Money collected on the above Accounts, we think it would be very adviseable for such Persons who have contributed thereto, immediately to demand it back again before the Informations are given.

ON Thursday the 2d of August next, will be exposed to Sale in their Court Room in the Old Jury, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, several Parcels of Condemned Tea, and Green Tea, Coffee, Chocolate, Cocoa Nuts, Brandy, Rum, Geneva, Cordial Waters, and Starch; which may be viewed on Monday and Wednesday (preceding the Day of Sale) at the Excise Office, and at the Warehouses near the Custom House, from 9 to 12 in the Morning, and from 2 till 5 in the Afternoon, and on the Day of Sale, from 9 to 12 in the Forenoon.

Printed Allotments of the Particulars will be delivered at the said Office on Saturday next.

Custom-House London, July 24, 1738. WHEREAS on Tuesday the 21st of March last, a Dutch ship, named the Anna and Helena, Capt. Waganaw, Commander, was stranded in Bigbury Bay in the County of Devon, loaded with Wine, Brandy, and other Goods, the greatest Part of which Cargo was plundered and carried off by great Numbers of Persons, who assembled in a riotous and tumultuous Manner, armed with Axes, Hatchets, Crabs of Iron, and other Weapons, and who cut several Holes in the Deck and Sides of the said Ship, and beat the Master, notwithstanding the Assistance given by the Gentlemen of the Neighbourhood, and the Officers of the Customs, who were at that Time present.

In order therefore to discover the Offenders and bring them to Justice, the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs do (in pursuance of the Directions of the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury) hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds each to any Four of the Offenders respectively who shall first discover Three or more of their Accomplices, so that they be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence, to be paid by the Receiver General of the Customs at the Custom-house, London, or by Mr. William Rogers, Collector of the Customs at Plymouth, to each of any four of the Offenders; and his Majesty has been pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to such Offender or Offenders so discovering, as aforesaid, agreeable to the Publication in the London Gazette of Saturday the 22d Instant.

Signed by Order of the Commissioners.

ANTI-SYPHILICON.

THE only short and most infallible
Cure in the Universe for the VENEREAL DISEASE, from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant VIKUS, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections, call'd CLARS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks on one Hand, or a terminal Gleet or Weakness to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attend'd with Nocturnal Pains, univeral Breakings out,
and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inunction, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have to their great Joy experienc'd.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sicknes or Disorder, nor requires Confinement; but may be taken, and the Cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, may,
by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it intirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on that Account, in all scurbitick, serpulous, and even leprosous Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose, than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Book of Institutions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is intirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.

An immediate and never-failing CURE for Deafness, Thickness of Hearing, Noise
or Pain in the Ears, &c.

BY a noble Chymical Preparation, the most excellent Medicine for this Purpose that ever was known, far exceeding all things ever yet published, or made Use of; its Virtues are beyond Expression, and cannot be truly known but by Experience: Words come short of its just Praise.

It is a certain, and, as it were, an instant Cure for Deafness, Thickness of Hearing, Noise or Pain in the Ears, from what Cause soever, or of ever so long standing, having cured vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and all Ages, that have been in a manner totally deaf, after all other Means and Medicines external and internal, by Advice, and also by Publication, have failed, with the greatest Ease and Safety, and to their utmost Satisfaction and Wonder; for In a peculiar Manner it strengthens, softens, and loosens the Drum of the Ear, which by being dried, or shrivell'd, is often the first, and chief Cause of every Complaint of want of Hearing, or of Noise, or Pain in the Ears, &c. To remedy all which, this noble Medicine is a true Specific, that never fails perfectly to cure all possibly curable Cases, after all other Means and Medicine have utterly failed; which is more than can be said of any other Thing in the whole World besides itself: Any Cold in the Head, or any Hurt by congealed Matter in the Ears, it instantly cures.

It is sold for 3s. 6d. each Bottle, by the Author's special Appointment, at Mr. Richard's Tinshop, the Sign of the Black Horse and Star, in Fleet-street, near Fleet-Market; and no where else in England.
